Hot and Cold places

KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

ESSENTIAL HOT AND COLD PLACES VOCABULARY
Country	A place with independent land and it's own Government.
Desert	A place with very little rain covered with sand.
Human feature	A human feature is built or made by a human.
Physical feature	Part of the land or landscapes that can be touched or seen. Not made by a human.
Landmark	A usually large object on land that is easy to see and can help a person find the way to a place nearby.
Ocean	The whole body of salt water that covers most of the earth's surface.
Continent	A continent is a very large area of land that is made up of different countries.
Atlas	A book of maps.
Climate zone	Areas with distinct climates.
Equator	An invisible line around the centre of the earth that divides the earth into 2 hemispheres.

Canada

Canada is a cold country within the continent of North America.
Ottawa is the capital city of Canada.
Canada is near the Artic Ocean.
Bears, wolves and beavers are just some of the animals that live in Canada.

Kenya

Kenya is a hot country within Africa.
The capital city of Kenya is Nairobi.
More than 60 languages are spoken in Kenya.
Rhinos, lions, elephants and zebras are some of the animals that live in Kenya.
Kenya is near the Indian Ocean.

MAKING LINKS TO PREVIOUS LEARNING GOLDEN VOCABULARY
Introduction	The Atlantic Ocean is the closest ocean to the UK.
Introduction	The UK is on the continent of Europe.
Rainford our village	An Atlas is a book full of various maps.
Introduction	The climate zones change according to where the continent is.
Introduction	The Equator is a notional line around the centre of the earth.

Human and Physical Features

Human features are buildings or landmarks that have been made by a person. A road is a human features, houses, shops, schools are all human features. Physical features are things that haven't been made by a human. Rivers, mountains and oceans are all examples of physical features.

Compass Points