

Animals including humans – All About Animals

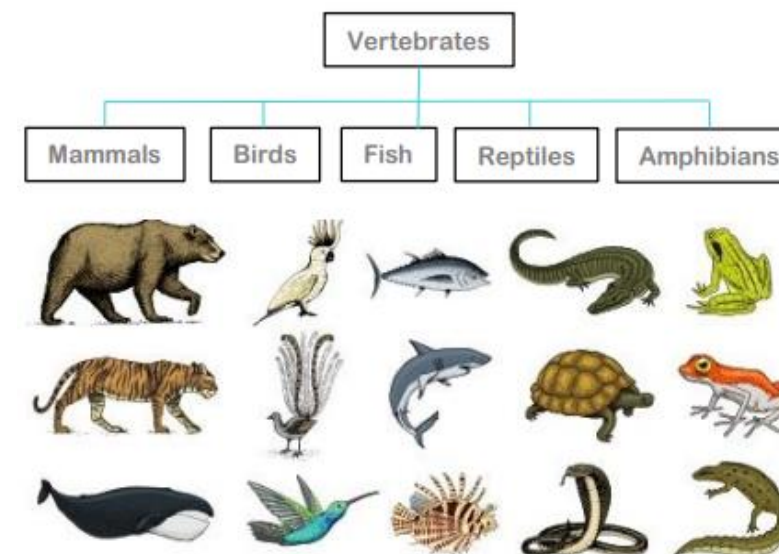

ESSENTIAL LIFE CYCLES VOCABULARY

reptile	An animal that has scales, lays eggs and is cold blooded.
amphibian	An animal that has moist skin, is cold blooded and can survive on land and in water.
carnivore	An animal that only eats meat and other animals.
herbivore	An animal that only eats plants.
omnivore	An animal that eats meat and plants.
warm blooded	Having a body temperature that does not change with the temperature of the air.
cold blooded	Having a body temperature that changes depending on the temperature of the air or water.
mammal	An animal that is warm blooded, has hair/fur and gives birth to live young.
fish	An animal that has gills to breathe, lives under water and is cold blooded.
bird	An animal that has feathers to fly and a beak.

MAKING LINKS TO PREVIOUS LEARNING GOLDEN VOCABULARY

Animals including humans – All About Me	We are mammals because we have hair on our bodies and we are warm blooded.
EYFS	Fish live in water and can make a good pet to look after.
EYFS	Duck, chicken and pigeon are all types of birds .

What animals eat

Animal food groups

What animals eat	Carnivores	Herbivores	Omnivores
herbivore 	 Tiger	 Cuttlefish	 Rhinoceros
omnivore 	 Platypus	 Anteater	 Parrot
carnivore 	 Shark	 Lion	 Hippopotamus
		 Deer	 Koala
		 Giraffe	 Kiwi
			 Hedgehog
			 Boar
			 Monkey
			 Bear